

ANTI-RAGGING POLICY

Institution Name: Prayaga Institute of Management Studies

Address: Prayaga Campus, Chirakkad, Kunnathurmedu, Palakkad

Objective

Prayaga Institute of Management Studies is committed to providing a ragging-free and safe academic environment. This policy aims to prohibit, prevent, and address incidents of ragging within the campus as per UGC and AICTE guidelines.

Definition of Ragging

Ragging includes any act of teasing, abuse, physical or psychological harm, or forceful activities imposed by senior students on juniors, which disrupts harmony in the institution.

Zero Tolerance Policy

- Any student found guilty of ragging will face strict disciplinary actions, including suspension, expulsion, or legal proceedings.
- Both the victim and the accused will receive counseling and support.

Roles and Responsibilities of the Anti-Ragging Cell

- Monitor and prevent ragging incidents.
- Conduct awareness programs and maintain vigilance.
- Handle complaints promptly and ensure confidentiality.
